

Justine Glover, M.A., CCC-SLP
Clinic Director & Speech-Language Pathologist justine@pedspchthpy.com

Hunter College of City University of New York

Justine is the Clinic owner and Director with over 40 years experience in hospital, home health, therapeutic preschool, clinical settings. Her extensive experience has taught her that "Parent Coaching" is one of the most important and effective aspects of therapy. Specific specialties include social language skills training and early intervention. Justine, her husband, and twin children live in Cumming.