

Kasey Furniss, SLP
Speech-Language Pathologist

M.S., CCC-SLP

Masters in Communication Disorders from Utah State University 2012

Kasey has over five years of experience working with the pediatric population. She has worked extensively to support children's development in the areas of articulation, language, reading comprehension, early language acquisition, stuttering, and social language. She enjoys collaborating with families to develop home treatment plans and guiding clients to meet their communication goals. Kasey lives in Sandy Springs with her husband and two children. She is originally from Portland, Oregon and enjoys finding new outdoor adventures and food to try in Georgia.